MAIL BOX

THE GOOD SHIP NINTENDO

A while ago my family and I went away for the weekend and I left my NES in the basement rec room. When we got home we found that a water pipe in the street had busted and had flooded the basement. Immediately I thought, "Great, my NES is ruined. What else could go wrong?" Well, I got the biggest surprise of my whole life. I had my NES in a small box to protect it from carpet fibers; little did I know that it would be protected from the flood as well. There in the middle of the water filled room was my NES floating in that box. My NES turned out to be the sole survivor; the carpet and everything was ruined! My dad learned a lesson from this. Now, his golf clubs, the television, telephone and lots of other home furnishings are in cardboard boxes patterned after my NES box! Thanks a zillion! I hope this story will bring you as many laughs as it did my dad—after he calmed down, of course!

Kevin Dujan
Cleveland, OH

Thank you for the great story, Kevin. We all got a good laugh out of it. Since it rains a lot here in the Pacific Northwest, maybe we should use your idea too...

DOUBLE TROUBLE

I was playing Super Mario Bros. 2 and fighting Mouser, but I got beat. On my next life, I saw two Mousers!! Could you tell me what happened?

Eric Elzea
Kingsport, TN

The two Mousers phenomenon you witnessed is what is known as a game bug. Some games have minor programming inconsistencies in them that can occur infrequently during game play. Programmers try to take these bugs out of games before they are released, but because there are so many different things that can happen in today's advanced video games, they sometimes miss them. Considering how rare these bugs are, the testers do a pretty good job. Some players enjoy finding these bugs and consider them special tricks. Useful or especially interesting bugs often find their way into our Classified Information section.

THE THRILL OF VICTORY

I wrote to you a while ago asking for help on defeating Matic in the awesome NES game Strider. You replied that you wouldn't tell me because you felt it would be better for me to figure out how to beat the final enemy of the game on my own. Well, I finally did and it felt great. Now Matic is a piece of cake. Thanks!

Brent Soboleski
Erie, PA

Congratulations Brent! Keep on playing and see what else you can master!

ENJOY IN MODERATION

When my 12-year-old brother first got his NES, all he did was play it; he would not stop. His grades went down and he never did his chores. This went on until my father took the NES away from him. It was a month before my brother got his NES back, but he learned a very important lesson. He can now play the NES until 5:00 P.M., then he has to do his homework and chores. I am very proud of my brother, he does well with his game even with this limitation and just finished Mega Man II. Recently he got me and my two-year-old brother Jake into the NES and we love it too! Thanks again Nintendo, you're the best!

Cami, Nicky and Jake Deluca
Big Bear City, CA

Thanks for writing, Cami. We believe that it is important for everyone to balance their time between fun things like playing the NES and more important tasks, like studying for school.

WE NEED YOUR LETTERS

VIDEO SPOTLIGHT

Looking for a Power Player? Search no more. With seventeen games conquered and more on the way, I'm a sure fire winner. Nintendo is the best hobby I've ever had. I was the second one of my friends to get a Nintendo and three others got them soon after. In the afternoons, my friends and I always go to one of our houses to play Nintendo. I've even been known to play all night without stopping (although only on rare occasions). The games I've conquered include many of the best: Super Mario Bros. 2, Metal Gear, Rygar and Metroid. Break Thru and Life Force were each beaten on the day I first played them and a friend and I finished Contra after four hours of playing it!

I'm president of a Nintendo club called the Video Warlords. We save up for club games. I'm 14, I have a dog named Benji and I'm Nintendo's number one fan! (Another note: most of the games above were finished with Nintendo's standard controller, and none were finished with slow motion.) Thank you for providing over fifteen million of America's citizens with an ever-cool hobby!!

Jeff Benson
New Paris, TX

I think I am a Power Player. I have had my Nintendo for a year now and I love it. Some of the games I have beaten are Blades of Steel, Karate Kid, Iron Tank, Contra, both Super Mario Bros., Strider and Mega Man II. I am working on T.M.N.T. and Ninja Gaiden.

My general advice to other players:

—Don't give up, but don't play too long. Extended play makes some players angry.

—Call the Game Counselors, they really help!

—Don't just buy a game with only beating it in mind. Instead, buy games for the fun of playing them!

POWER PLAYER PROFILE: ANDY CUNNINGHAM

Age: 14
Rocky Mount, NC

When the NES came out, I wasn't that impressed. But after two months of everybody telling me how cool it was and how I had to get one, I gave in and bought it. That was the best move I've ever made. Since then I've had countless hours of fun and excitement behind the NES, alone and with my friends. I've also made a lot of new friends through Nintendo. Favorite Games: I especially like Adventure games where there is one hero and you are him. These games give you a bigger sense of accomplishment when you finish them.

NES Accomplishments: I have finished over 36 games including Bionic Commando, The Adventure of Link, Ninja Gaiden, The Guardian Legend, Mega Man II and most recently, Dragon Warrior. Someday I would like to be a graphics designer for a major software company. I've already designed many of my own game characters on my personal computer, and even a full game, Super Dachshund—complete with ending screens, full stages, 20 different evil enemies and 8 incredibly challenging bosses. I plan to fully animate it and add digitized sound effects as well.

LOOK OUT! MARIO

SUPER MA

This is it! Mario and Luigi return in their biggest adventure yet! Super Mario Bros. 3 has more secrets, more tricks and more outrageous obstacles than the first two Super Mario Bros. games put together! In fact, we could barely fit maps and tips for the first two Worlds in these eight pages. So let's go and see what we can find!

SUPER ITEMS TO HELP MARIO ON HIS WAY

These are the items Mario will come across in his quest to rid the Mushroom Worlds of Bowser's Koopa Children. Find and use them all!

Mario can turn into a Frog, Tanooki or Hammer Brother.

The bottom of the Map Screen shows the items Mario has collected.

Mushrooms turn Mario into Super Mario.

Fire Flowers turn Mario into Fiery Mario with Fire Ball Power.

Leaves give Mario the Flying Raccoon Tail.

Stars grant Mario temporary invincibility.

P-Wings bestow the power of unlimited flight!

The Cloud Jewel allows Mario to skip one section of a world.

The Music Box's tune will put the Hammer Brothers to sleep.

Break boulders on the Map Screen by using the Hammer.

The Anchor will make sure the Koopa Kid's Ship doesn't move.

Whistles transport Mario to a special place. They are very well hidden.

MARIO ENTERS THE FIRST MUSHROOM WORLD

The first Mushroom World is a training mission. Techniques you use and perfect here will be useful when applied to the Worlds which lie ahead. Get the Mushroom in the fourth Question Block and then follow these steps:

Kick the over-turned Koopa into this Question Block to get a Leaf.

Beat the Goombas in this stretch to clear some running room.

With a running start, soar into the sky. Follow the path of coins.

BACK AND THE FUN'S ABOUT TO BEGIN!

TM

MARIO BROS.

3

WORLD 1-WORLD OF GRASSLANDS

This World of grass covered hills forms the pattern of the Worlds which follow. It is the smallest of all the Mushroom Worlds.

Stand on one of the doors on the Map Screen and hit the A Button and you'll be whisked to an Action Scene.

Inside the comfortable confines of your friend Toad's house, you'll be faced with three chests. All contain useful power-up items, so go ahead and pick one!

The regal White Mushroom House usually appears after you have done something special. Accordingly, there wonderful things inside, like P-Wings, Tanooki Suits or Anchors!

In the middle of each World is stationed a Mini-Fortress defended by Boo Diddy Ghosts, Dry Bones and Thwomp Traps, all commended by a Boon Boon Koopa.

Wandering Hammer Brothers lay in wait on the roads of each World. Defeating them will result in a minor power-up item, such as a Star.

The Spade Panel will take you to a game where you'll get a chance to win extra lives.

Reach the floating platforms, collect the 1-up and coins.

Get another running start so you can fly to the end of the World.

Flying is one of the most important moves in Super Mario Bros. 3. Make sure you do it when ever you have the running room to take off and you'll find lot of coins and items.

The Switch Block turns coins into blocks and blocks into coins, a valuable trick.

Dropping down pipes into secret rooms will reset the Switch Block.

Stop the clock with the timer on an even number, and the points and coins matching at a multiple of 11.

ROLLING HILLS AND GOOMBA SPILLS

Out of the pipes of this World flow a torrent of Goombas—talk about a plumber's nightmare! Stomp 'em all! Get the first Leaf for points or to become bigger. Don't get the coins that are floating in the air, slide under hit the Switch Block to turn them into blocks. Backtracking is possible in Super Mario 3 for repeated coin and item collection.

The Switch Block is one of the blocks under the floating pipe.

Once the coins are turned into blocks you can get on top of the floating pipe.

When you come up, you'll be at an earlier spot where you can do it again.

The Switch Block and other hidden items will be in place again when you exit the secret room.

THIS WORLD HOLDS A SECRET!

As in the original Super Mario Bros., there are invisible blocks to be found. A block that will always be unseen until hit is the Magic Note Block. If you make this block appear and then jump on it while pressing Up, you'll be launched into "Coin Heaven."

Leap onto the first Red Koopa and kick him so he goes left. He'll clear away some of these blocks.

Jump around in the cleared space to get the Magic Note Block to appear.

A HIGH PRESSURE SITUATION!

One wrong step here and Mario will fall to his doom. Collect all the coins and both 1-Ups, and the White Mushroom House will appear later on the map screen.

Get 10 coins and a 1-Up.

Get the 1-Up in this block.

10 coins here!

Your reward: A P-swing!

BOOM BOOM'S MINI-FORTRESS

Each World has a mini-fortress stationed in the middle of it. Some of the toughest challenges in the game are found in these places, and some of the best secrets. Explore them thoroughly!

Be sure to power up fully in the Fortress.

The power of light will help you explore thoroughly...

Boom Boom is sleeping—it looks like he wasn't expecting you. If you stomp him three times quickly, while he's still tired, he'll be easy to beat.

AN ICY LABYRINTH

Frost covered hills conceal an ice cold tunnel system guarded by Mario's old "buddy" Buzzy Beetle. The freezing ponds here will give you a taste of the fearsome water Worlds yet to come. Also, a Magic Note Block awaits discovery to grant you passage to "Coin Heaven."

Press Down to slide down the slope and wipe out the Buzzy Beetles

Jump around in the first tunnel to the surface to find the Magic Note Block.

Run back and forth in "Coin Heaven" to get up enough speed to fly

Near the middle is a floating block that contains a 1-Up

You'll get a big payoff in "Coin Heaven."

Some of the big colored "back-ground" blocks have unusual properties. Try different things to see what you can find.

WACKY LIFTS TEST YOUR JUMPING SKILLS!

The skills gained from mastering jumping on the moving lifts in this World will serve you well in future Worlds. If you get the 1-Up in the middle of the World, you can practice the jumping maneuvers without fear of losing a man overboard.

Use the first Koopa to knock out the one on the lower platform

Get rid of this Koopa Troop.

Then get the 1-Up here.

It is difficult but possible to get the running start you need to fly here

ON TO THE KOOPA KID'S SHIP!

Bowser's Koopa Kids set out in huge flying ships and captured the magic wand of the King of each Mushroom World. Mario must board the ship and make his way to the Koopa Kid's chamber in the most swashbuckling game play sequence ever!

Stay towards the left so you can see what's coming

Stomp on top of bullets or cannon balls for points, if you're brave enough

Fireball's won't hurt anything on board this boat.

Three stomps on the head and Larry's out of here!

Avoid the magic smoke rings from his wand

Run under Larry when he leaps to avoid him

WORLD 2— THE KOOPAHARI DESERT

RUINS OF THE

Ancient ruins of fabulous Pyramids dot the landscape. Although these ruins are picturesque, they're anything but peaceful. Super strong Micro-Goombas lurk beneath the blocks and will jump up and try to crush Mario with the ancient bricks!

MAKE ANOTHER WHITE MUSHROOM HOUSE APPEAR

Here's another World where you can get a White Mushroom House by collecting all the coins. There's a catch though; first you must get all the visible coins, then activate a Switch Block and get all the coins that were blocks.

Take all the coins as you go right. Don't forget the 1-Up!

Get on the platform, activate the P-Switch and get all the coins before they turn back into blocks.

Make the Switch Block appear, but don't activate it yet.

Swim back towards the left and the platform will be there again.

WORLD 2 FORTRESS

Introducing the Thwomp Traps—huge blocks ready to crush anything that gets underneath them. Be careful or you'll have mashed Mario on your hands. Only two ways are known to get past these monstrous devices.

Wait until the trap is sprung and go through while it's resetting.

With the right timing, you can run and jump through.

Boo Diddy ghosts give chase if you turn your back on them.

A Boom Boom Koopa awaits you in the Fortress. He's similar to the last one, but a little quicker when he wakes up.

MUSHROOM PHARAOSHS

Be careful when you encounter new foes like these

With all the Goombas cleared, you have plenty of room to run.

Run and fly up, breaking the blocks surrounding the pipe in the sky

Hit the Switch Block inside the secret room to reveal invisible coins.

Go down the last pipe in the World to find another secret room.

A TREASURE TROVE OF ANCIENT COINS

Use Koopas to defeat the Fire Snakes for a clear runway.

The Pyramids of the Mushroom Pharaohs are rumored to contain abundant treasure in the form of gold coins. And although Mario isn't the greedy type, collecting those coins does help his score and chances of survival by giving him extra lives.

Fly up and find the Switch Block in the sky

Use Koopas to break away the blocks that cover the pipe at the world's end

TAKE THE HIGH ROAD FOR A BIG LOAD

You need to be Raccoon Mario to take full advantage of the coin bounty in this section.

Fortunately, there's a power-up right near the beginning of the World, but it's kind of tricky to get.

Use one of the Koopas to hit the floating Question Block

Run left and fly up to the corner

Find the Switch Block in the blocks above the lake

Another Switch Block lets you collect an extra 11 coins.

QUICKSAND DESERT

Only Venus Fire Trap plants can survive in this parched place. An angry sun will literally beat down on Mario if you're not careful. A whirlwind also makes the going difficult. To top it all off, some of the sandy paths here are made up of quicksand!

Stomp the Koopa, pick him up and run right.

Take him along for the ride in the whirlwind.

Use the Koopa against the sun when it sets

CLIMB A MAGIC VINE TO COINS IN THE SKY

The Chain Chomps are the most frustrated villains in video games. As much as they'd like to, they can't get their teeth on Mario because of their chain. There is a power-up item that might tempt you to get close to them, though. Get it if you're feeling lucky.

There's a Leaf that is out of the Chain Chomps' reach.

If you kick a Koopa into one of the narrow pits a vine will sprout.

Climb the vine to get to the clouds above and collect the coins there.

One of those blocks is a Switch Block—hit it and collect the loot.

THE GREAT PYRAMID OF MUSHROOMKHAMEN

Entering and exiting the pyramid has the effect of resetting the power-up items inside. So if you're small at the start, you can get the first power-up, leave, come back, and get it again!

Get rid of the Buzzy before you try for the power-up.

Leave the pyramid through the door you came in, then re-enter.

An invisible block will let you get to the pipe above.

Stand on the fifth block from the right in the top row and jump for a 1-Up.

IT'S THE MORTON KOOPA JR. SHOW!

The Second Koopa Kid's ship is docked out with more artillery than the first one. It also is a little trickier to navigate on its decks. It will probably take you several tries to scout out all the obstacles and learn Bullet Bill firing patterns.

Keep moving past or Bullet Bill will score a hit.

Go between the crates as quickly as possible.

Watch out for Rocky Wrench and the Ninja Gopher!

Morton Koopa Jr. moves in a pattern like brother Larry's. Three stomps cancel Morton's show!

WORLD THREE—ISLAND WORLD

Sea World contains some of the toughest tests in the game. The Frog Suits make the aquatic action easier.

Boss Boss can swallow you whole even if you're Super!

WORLD FOUR—LAND OF THE GIANTS

The giant enemies of this World look scary, but can be stomped, kicked and carried just like their smaller counterparts.

The bigger they are, the harder they fall!

WORLD FIVE—CLOUD CASTLE

Although half the action here is set on good old terra firma, the rest takes place high in the clouds. Get ready to do some amazing jumping!

It's a good idea to bring a Super Frog Suit to this level. The boss here can swallow you whole even if you're Super!

WORLD SIX—WINTER WONDERLAND

Put on a nice warm Tanooki Suit for this chilly challenge. Icy floors and tricky spinning lifts are just some of the new things you'll find here.

WORLD SEVEN—TUBE CITY

Maze-like puzzles make this World a real challenge. Some sections take more than just skill to get through—they require brain power.

Ho Ho Ho! C'mon Mario! I'm waiting for you...

Tricky mazes with new modes of transportation await you!

NEXT IS BOWSER'S UNDERWORLD HIDEOUT

Bowser's home is very dark, dingy and grim. It's full of fire pits and molten lava and lots of other nasty stuff. We're not going to tell you more about it just yet. But stay tuned—we'll reveal more Worlds and secrets in our new Strategy Guide issue coming in June.

SILENT SERVICE

THE SUBMARINE SIMULATION

"Captain, destroyer bearing zero, three, nine and closing," reports the sonar operator. "Bring us 35 degrees to starboard, down 100, ahead one-third," orders the Captain. The attack on the convoy had been unsuccessful. They had damaged both the tanker and the escort destroyer. Now the same wounded warship is hunting them. With batteries running low he needs a quick escape... but how?

MANEUVERING IS THE KEY TO SUB SURVIVAL!

The submarine is designed to attack from an undetected position. To get to this position you must be able to sneak up on the unsuspecting fleet with masterful maneuvering. Practice and master these techniques and you will find it not only helps in the attack, but also in the escape!

BACK REVERSE!

Engine astern will help accelerate your turns and your use of the air torpedoes.

ENGINE SPEED

This will affect how long your batteries last underwater and what you can catch.

DIRECTION

Remember, 270 degrees is left, 90 is right, 0 is up and 180 is down when you use your charts.

MAP SCALE

Check the map scale Captain! The enemy's closing fast. What do we do?

PRINCIPLE

The eyes of the sub. Remember the difference between bearing and heading. It can save your life!

TIME SCALE

It may take hours to stalk a well armed fleet. Use this to speed up maneuvering time.

KNOW YOUR SHIP FROM BOW TO STERN!

UP SCOPE!

You can't out run a destroyer and you can't always dive to the bottom. If you study your sub you'll know exactly what it can do. Ahead one-third, bring us in easy, helmsmen! The enemy's always watching for that little metal eye to break the surface.

TORPEDO

This is your main weep-on. It is best fired at the side of a ship from about 3000 yards or less.

DECK GUN

This weapon is best for putting down a lame duck. A good Skipper knows it's also good for getting out of hot water with destroyers.

GUN DEFLECTION

If he's coming fast take her down, if he's running away crank it up. This will give your gun the range it needs to catch them on the run. Otherwise it will look like you're hitting them but you'll just be splashing water!

VIEW GAUGES

In the heat of battle don't forget to check your gauges. You could run aground or run out of juice from the battery if you're not careful. A good gauge to watch is the temperature gauge. It will tell you where the thermal layer is. When a

CONDITIONS OF PLAY

With these options you can bring this game to the point of it being next to the real thing. The options you choose give you your starting rank. Better start at Midshipman until you've got a few tons in your log book. Run silent, run deep Captain.

NOVICE OPTIONS

UNLIMITED VISIBILITY

You can see to the limit of the map scale for plotting.

NO CONVOY ZIG-ZAG

Convoys move in a straight line until fired upon.

NO DUD TORPEDOES

If it hits, it will explode. Try to make every one count!

REPAIRS UNDER FIRE

If the sub becomes damaged, the crew begins repairs immediately.

STANDARD DESTROYERS

All destroyers will operate with the same level of efficiency.

CLOSE CONVOYS

When the enemy is detected, they will always be in radar range (about 10-13,000 yards). This will also speed up the game.

ADVANCED OPTIONS

Limited Visibility

You can only see as far as your radar can. (about 13,000 yards).

CONVOY ZIG-ZAG

Convoys will periodically zig-zag to avoid being easy targets.

DUD TORPEDOES

If you use this option, some of your torpedoes will just bounce off the enemy.

PORT REPAIRS ONLY

If your sub becomes damaged you may have to head for home. Repairs can't be done at sea.

EXPERT DESTROYERS

Some of the destroyers will have better sonar than others.

CONVOY SEARCH

You will need to search out enemy convoys, as they will not always be in radar range. Your search may take some time.

DIFFICULTY LEVEL OF YOUR MISSION

MIDSHIPMAN

LIEUTENANT

COMMANDER

CAPTAIN

SONAR REPORTS DESTROYERS CLOSING!

When you report to your ship you'll want to learn the ropes right away. Convoy Actions are very good for learning to "stalk" the enemy like a cat hunting a bird. With a few of these under your belt you'll be ready for a full scale war patrol and your own command!

TORPEDO/GUN PRACTICE

This is a good place to hone your skills on stationary, non-combative targets. Try working with the aft torpedoes and the deck gun deflection. To use the gun deflection, fire while moving toward the target at a high rate of speed. Remember the difference between heading and bearing when firing aft. A good trick is make your heading 0 degrees, then turn the periscope to 180 degrees, you're now aiming with the aft torpedoes.

CONVOY ACTION

This is one-on-ones with an escorted fleet. Once you take a crack at these actions you'll see just how brave or crazy these Captains really are. Enemy approaching, but there's no one in the scoop! Don't forget to look behind you.

1. PLUNGER IN THE ISLAND SEA
(U.S. Commander D.C. White)

2. WAKKO VS. CONVOY
(U.S. Commander "Mash" Weston)

3. HAWAIIHEAD AT SOBROO
(Commander J.C. Martin)

4. BEAVER AT FURUJI IN ZU
(U.S. Commander J.L. Connelly)

5. YAMOTO AT NIGHT
(U.S. Commander Shaban)

6. KAWAUCHI IN THE CONGA SEA
(U.S. Commander J.B. Moore)

WAR PATROL

Here you are on a 54-day mission in which you have free reign to travel about the Pacific Ocean. The enemy's trying to take over the islands. If you hang tight around them you might find yourself a juicy troop ship or a tanker there. Don't stay too long though, you may find someone looking for you!

WORLD MAP OF WAR PATROL

Enemy detected. Battle stations! Stand by torpedo room, up scope!

As the enemy gets closer decrease your map scale to you get better info.

Watch the range! They're all over you!

The enemy will appear in your map range but you may not be able to see them. Turn a 360 with the periscope to track them down.

BATTLE TECHNIQUES

On a War Patrol, time is on your side. If you find a fleet and there are two or three destroyers, you may want to look for another one. Always try to strike at night. Keep your eyes peeled for an aircraft carrier or a battleship. If you can put one of these down you'll be promoted and recognized as the Admiral's best Skipper for sure!

SILENT RUNNING

When the destroyers are closing in don't forget that your propellers make noise. The faster your engine is going, the easier you are to find. Run at full speed until they start to get close, then cut your speed and turn off. The destroyers will go to the last place you fired from and start looking for you.

Destroyers always come back along the line the torpedoes travelled.

As they close in, cut back on the engines and break away.

POSITION OF YOUR SHIP

Try to get to the side of an enemy ship. That way he's as big as a barn door and much easier to hit. Sometimes, if you just watch the fleet for a minute you can guess where they are going. That way you can try to get there first and bushwack them when they show up. Good hunting Captain! The ocean is a very big place.

If you're behind them you may want to go up above them, move fast, and get out in front.

Don't forget the minge. They can see almost 10,000 yards.

TIME SCALE

The grease will really be flying in the engine room if you run the engines wide open for a long time. You can speed up the game by changing the time scale and save your engines some wear and tear. You can use this to turn day into night if you stay with the enemy long enough. Give it a try!

Perfect positioning. Fire one, fire two. Down scope, engine room standby!

Don't forget to go back to normal time in the attack or it will be over before you know it!

RELEASING DEBRIS

This old trick is used to make the destroyers think they've got you. If they drop charges and you survive, release some debris and lie very still. They may think they've got you and leave. If you start to sink after that first depth charge, blow your emergency tanks to surface. You'll have to fight it out with the deck gun and hope you can drive them off.

This trick only works if they're very close. Wait until the last minute if you can!

Blow tanks! She's taking on water and going down!

DAY AND NIGHT

Daylight runs against escorted fleets are for the very brave and experienced Captain. A smart Captain knows that a submarine is very hard to detect at night. If you see a fleet that you really want, follow it until at least twilight, then make your move. That way you can run on the surface where you have more speed.

The clock runs on military time, (24 hours). Twelve to twenty hour are the nighttime hours.

When moving at night remember, the faster you go, the easier you are to see.

THE REST IS UP TO YOU!

YOU'LL HAVE TO USE ALL YOUR WIT TO BE THE WORLD'S GREATEST SUBMARINE CAPTAIN!

NINTENDO POWER CONSUMER ELECTRONICS

The 1990 Winter Consumer Electronic Show in Las Vegas was a huge success, with over 50 Nintendo licensees cramming their displays into Nintendo's giant ($3,000 sq. foot) booth for the purpose of showing off hot new products. Name any game category—from action to role playing, and there were new games presented for it. Many of these new games are high memory games, with one, two or three megabits of ROM storage. Also especially noticeable at this show were all of the interesting, high quality Game Boy titles. Here's a quick glance at some of the titles by category of games we saw at the CES!

ACTION

Unique game play vantage points and super detailed graphics marked the high quality action games on display. For example, Captain Skyhawk from Milton Bradley puts a new twist on the flight simulator theme with a game play view from behind the plane. The science fiction action in NTVIC's Isolated Warrior unfolds from an innovative three dimensional perspective. Image Fight from Irem, makers of R-Type, features awesome graphics and wild colors, and Ultra's Mission: Impossible is an action packed secret agent jaunt.

Other new action oriented games shown at the CES included: Journey To Silius (Sunsoft), Dragon Spirit (Banda), Circus Capers (Ioho), Castle of Dragon (Seta), and Silk Worm (American Sammy).

ARCADE TRANSLATIONS

The arcades have always furnished many hits for the NES. The long awaited NES versions of NARC by Acclaim and Heavy Barrel by Data East were at the show, along with Mechanized Attack (SNK), Super Spy Hunter (Sunsoft), Cabal (Milton Bradley) and Rally Bike (Romstar).

MOTORIZED MADNESS

From Monster Trucks to Formula One racers, the NES has it all when it comes to automobile action. Michael Andretti's World GP (American Sammy) features a two-player simultaneous mode with split screen action. Acclaim's Bigfoot boasts graphically excellent side and overhead views. Formula One Built to Win from Seta, like many of the new auto games, lets you customize your vehicle as you move up in the racing circuit standings.

Rad Racer II (Square), World Rally Championship Racing (HAL), Chase HQ (Taito), Bill Elliot's NASCAR Challenge (Konami), and Days of Thunder (Mindscape) are also in the NES auto game race.

PUZZLING PLEASURE

More mind teasing games like Tetris are on their way to the NES. Lucasfilms Games and Bullet Proof Software (who were involved with Tetris) are bringing the hit P. C. puzzler, Pipe Dreams, to the NES along with a game similar to Tetris, Hetris. (Alexey Pajitnov himself was at the show too—his first visit to America!) Kickle Cubicle from Irem is an appealing puzzler for players of all ages. CSG Imagesoft was showing the fantasy puzzle game, Solstice, and a new Nintendo licensee, Arcadia Systems, is developing an animated board game style puzzle contest featuring The 7-Up Spot.

CARTOONS AND COMICS

Marvel Comic's Punisher joins the ranks of LJN's hot licensed titles in a mayhem filled, machine gun action game. Capcom was showing off their new two player simultaneous Rescue Rangers game (with the help of Chip and Dale). Kemco-Seika had Snoopy's Silly Sports and Bugs Bunny's Birthday Blowout, and Arcadia previewed an early version of their Silver Surfer game. Dick Tracy (Banda) and Beetlejuice (LJN) are in the works.

ROLE PLAYING GREATS

RPG's are playing an important role in many companies' future game plans. SNK unveiled Crystalis, a fast paced RPG set in a post holocaust future. Taito's Dungeon Magic is the first NES RPG in which the action unfolds entirely in a first person viewpoint. Star-Tropics and Final Fantasy are Nintendo's additions to the RPG field. Both are complex and long playing with great storylines.

Other RPGs on the horizon include Faria and Wizardry, both from Newsoft, Wolf Street Kid (Soft), Magic of Scheherzade (Culture Brain), Taro's Quest (Jaleco), Heroes of the Lance (FC) and Shingen the Ruler (Hot-S USA).

TRONICS SHOW

SUPER SEQUELS

In the tradition of Hollywood, many Nintendo licensees are releasing sequels to their top games. In most cases these sequels out do the original in action, story and graphics. Tecmo was giving the public their first look at Ninja Gaiden II, which gets four star ratings for its great cinema scenes and challenge. Super C, the sequel to Contra, continues Konami's tradition of excellent action games. Back to the Future II, Ghostbusters II and Top Gun II were shown, and all had some features that improved upon the original concept. Programming work on Gauntlet II (Mindscape) and Tecmo Bowl II is underway.

UNDER DEVELOPMENT

Below is a list of games that were announced at the show and are currently under development. We'll fill you in as soon as information is available.

Archivists, Arkana's Ring, Bad News Baseball, Blockout, Boulder Dash, Bruce Lee Lives, CastleVania III, Cave-man Ughlympics, Cosmic Epsilon, Daze Vu, Dirty Harry, Dusty Diamond's All Star Softball, Fun House, Hunt for Red October, Ivan Warriors III, Indiana Jones and the Last Crusade, Jack and the Beanstalk, M.U.L.E., Muppet Adventure, "Noid" Game, Pictionary, Pinball Quest, Play Isle, Street Fighter 2, Sweet Home, Time Lord, Total Recall, and Uninvited.

HIGHLIGHTS

With so many quality games to see, it was difficult to isolate a few highlights. Nintendo's Super Mario Bros. 3 was constantly being played by those visiting the Nintendo booth. Mattel's Super Glove Ball demonstrations also attracted the attention of many onlookers, and it played great! Maniac Mansion, a Lucasfilm P.C. game being produced for the NES by Jaleco, featured new P.C. style play options. Asmik's Wurm and Vic Tokai's Golgo 13: The Masfai Conspiracy were impressive for their great graphics and the variety of action tasks both games contained. Overall, it was an exciting show, and all the new games being released will keep us here at Nintendo Power busy for some time to come.

GAME BOY

Many licensee companies are jumping on the Game Boy bandwagon, and the future looks bright indeed, with over 50 games under development!

ACTION

Action games with smooth, flowing graphics and larger, more detailed characters were among the most thrilling Game Boy titles shown. Tradewest's Double Dragon was perhaps the best Game Boy title at the show. Wizards and Warriors X: The Fortress of Fear and Burai Fighter Deluxe were also impressive.

Other great future action titles include: Space Invaders (Taito), Fist of the North Star (Electro Brain), Paperboy (Mindscape), Batman (Sunsoft), Kung Fu Kid (Culture Brain) and Spider-man (LJN)

SPORTS

The new sports games for Game Boy are as complex and detailed as any for the NES. Bases Loaded (Jaleco) NFL Football (Konami), Soccer Mania (CSG Imagesoft), WWF Superstars (Acclaim), Malibu Beach Volleyball (Activision) are all games to look forward to if you're a sports nut.

PUZZLES & GAMES

The ideal category of game for Game Boy, the puzzler, was represented by many games at the CES. Examples included Qix (Nintendo), Kwirk (Acclaim), Hyper Lode Runner (Bandai), Lock 'N Chase (Data East), Solomon's Club (Tecmo), Heart Attack (Kemco-Seika), Penguin Wars and Ishida (Nexoft), QBillion (Seta), Flipull (Taito), Heanky Alien (Meldac), Wheel of Fortune and Jeopardy (GameTek), Shanghai (HAL), Super Scrabble and Mousetrap Hotel (Milton Bradley). An impressive line-up indeed!

ROLE PLAYING GAMES

Game Boy's RPGs demonstrate the power packed into this compact unit. Gargoyle's Quest (Capcom) is a fantasy RPG with a monstrous hero, The Great Hero: SAGA (Square) is a Dragon Warrior style RPG. Power Mission simulates a naval battle between two fleets.

PINBOT

Super Space-Age Arcade

Pinbot is a favorite in the arcades around the country and it's bound to be a hit at home with this specially designed version for the NES. One to four players alternately plunge into the Pinbot world. As the ball bounces and ricochets, lighting up the board with radical high scoring play, the computer generated voice of the Pinbot itself hints at the surprises to come.

Light Up The Light Grid

When you blow Pinbot's visor plate is a panel of lights. Hit the ball against the panel of lights in this area until the entire grid below has been lit up. Then Pinbot is in your control. With the visor open, hit a ball inside.

Do It With A Solar Flair

Knock the ball into this Solar Ramp Multiplier and you'll be well on your way to interstellar scores. The status screen at the bottom right of the Pinbot machine indicates the bonus multiplier. The Solar Value will increase by 50,000 points, each shot. Since the Solar Value can be astronomical, you should practice hitting the ramp.

Aim For The Drop Targets

By knocking down all three drop targets you can advance toward the sun and super high scores. You've got to be quick, though. Hit them all while the big light in front is flashing.

Stay Out Of The Outlines

Once a ball goes into the outline it is lost. Watch carefully when the ball is close to going out, and if it looks like it might, use the Start or Select Button to "jiggle" the machine and keep the ball in play.

BOB™

Action Heats Up The NES

A Valuable Vortex

Exercise skill at the plunger to drop the ball into the middle hole for a big score. The vortex score multiplies when you use the plunger more than once.

Get Into The Jet Bumpers

Get shot into the jet bumpers can ring up some fantastic scores. When you reach the Sun, look here for a Special to light up.

Journey In Through The Planets

The terrible cold of distant Pluto your journey begins, warming as the Sun grows closer and the action gets hotter. Your destination planet will light up on the display, but your ultimate destination is the Sun itself, which you can only reach by advancing through the planets. When you do reach the Sun, expect the unexpected and prepare for challenging new levels. You will even get a chance to play with a pinball that isn't round!

Target Your Planet

Your target planet will light up at the beginning of the game. Your first task is to achieve a score high enough to reach that destination.

Shake Up The Machine, But Don't Tilt

To be a Pinbot wizard you'll need an edge. By pushing "Select" or "Start" and "Jiggling" the machine you can change the path of the ball, just like in real pinball.

Twice The Challenge And Twice The Score with Multi-Ball

Once the center panel is lit and Pinbot's floor opens, hit the ball into an eye socket. The ball "locks" there, and you'll receive a second ball. If you put that second ball in the other socket, Pinbot launches into multi-ball play.

This Pinbot Is Like None You've Ever Seen Before

Even the best mechanical pinball machines can't do what your NES can do...

PINBOT

Multi-ball play!

1 Lift The Visor

Once the visor is up, try to get into multi-ball play. It's good to have an extra chance when monsters appear and try to get rid of the balls!

2 Collect The "Solar Value"

Every time a ball races up the Solar Ramp 50,000 points are added to the Solar Value. The Solar Value will continue to add up, ball after ball, player after player, until someone manages to collect it. Pinbot will help you out in this by instructing you to "Shoot for Solar Value." This happens in multi-ball play when one ball is in the socket. While the first ball is "locked" blast the second ball up into the Solar Ramp and you'll collect the jackpot!

3 Who Made The NES Pinbot?

To answer this burning question all you have to do is score ten million points or more. If you do, you'll see who is behind this NES version.

HIGH SCORES
1. GHO	25,704,810
2. BAK	12,075,850
3. TOJ	9,983,270
4. GLE	8,258,120
5. PP	6,749,930

4 Meet The New Pinbot

From super Solar jackpots to increasingly difficult levels of play in which Pinbot is invaded by monsters, this is not your father's old Pinbot. Having active enemies like the ball hogging monsters gives this version a whole new dimension. They'll try to steal your ball and take it out of play. When you progress far enough you'll even find monsters who can shoot away your flippers!

A Solar System Full Of Surprise!

PAD SHOP

A Deal for $25.00

Go for totally aggro moves without fear of scuffing your gimpy knees and bony elbows.

SLALOM

Controlled velocity makes for a high score in this event. Accuracy is also a must when skating between the gates.

First Stop: DOWNHILL

Getting downhill as quickly as possible is the object of this contest. To skate over the gaps make sure you are going straight down (press Down on the controller) when you reach one. Be ready to turn in the next section of downhill.

You'll need tickets to enter contests. Start with three and earn more with points.

Like in all the events, jumping and spinning will add to your point total. Be Bold!

Always spin when you Jump to rack up big points!

Here's how to spin as you jump: First jump, then press the Control Pad in a different direction than the one you were traveling in before you jumped. Immediately before landing, make sure you're pressing the arrow back in the direction you were going before you jumped. It takes practice to pull a 720°.

If you consistently jump and spin in the Main Park, you can rack up points and get extra tickets.

- 1 Spin = 100 pts
- 2 Spins = 200 pts
- 3 Spins = 300 pts
- 4 Spins = 400 pts

Main Park Bonanza!

As you skate from event to event in the Main Park, you can go through the center of the park and experience some bionic skate obstacles.

Jump the ponds for points.

Catch air off the launch ramps for extra scores.

Next Event: SLALOM

The Slalom is the easiest event to win a Gold Medal in if you go through all the flag gates in the proper direction. Flags will turn yellow to indicate a proper directional passage. Take your time and skate precisely.

It's better to go through a gate in the wrong direction than to miss it all together.

Rookie Course!

Killer Bees Infest The Main Park!

Although it's a good idea to stay in the Main Park to rack up points for tickets, when time is short, stay near an event entrance. If you take too long to choose a contest, the Killer Bees will come after you.

You can gain a few seconds on the deadly Killer Bees if you hit the Map symbol.

Third Event: JUMP

The Jump is another simple event. Obviously, enough, except to total air-heads, the object is to jump, and the course gives you ample opportunity to show off your skills. Of course, spinning while you jump will give you extra points. You don't have to make it to the end of the course to win a Gold, but you won't win any bonus points if you don't.

Spin and win!

Final Event in Class 1

RAMP

Get ready for a jamming session on this killer half-pipe. While a variety of techniques are possible, sometimes repeating the same one will rack up enough points for a Gold. A rhythmic motion on the buttons and control pad will help build up the momentum needed to score.

You'll always catch air when you go over the top of the ramp (the coping). To gain speed, press the Control Pad in the same way you're going

JUMP

SPIN

After getting mega air, press B to spin. Be sure to face down when you drop back in, or you'll get a mouthful of masonite.

You're Marshaled!

You've worked hard on this gnarly ramp. But that's ok, real ramp rats eat lots of surfacing material before they become pros.

SLIDE

Approach the coping while riding down A and press towards the center of the ramp. Once on the top, tie Up or Down. To drop in, press away from the center.

HAND PLANT

Confront the coping and press in the direction you're skating. Press in the other direction to drop back in.

SKATING HANDSTAND

While in the transition, press A and the direction you're moving to do a handstand on your board. Press in the other direction to get down.

A BOY AND HIS BLOB™

In the 21st Century many Earth boys have befriended aliens, like Blobert (or Blob for short) who comes from the planet of Blobolonia. But Blob didn't come to Earth just for the jellybeans, which he loves, but to get help. You see, back home on Blobolonia the Emperor makes everyone eat marshmallows and chocolate. For those like Blob who prefer to dine on jellybeans there is no choice but to fight for the alienable right of all beings to eat exactly what they want.

EXPERIMENT EXPERIMENT EXPERIMENT

On Earth, Blob and the boy must collect treasure in the underworld below the subway. With the treasure they can buy vitamins, which are poisonous to the Emperor. Then they are off to Blobolonia for the final showdown. Along the way are countless obstacles. To get past them the boy feeds jellybeans to the Blob, for he discovered that different flavors of jellybeans make Blob change its shape, which is a pretty useful thing to know.

COLLECT TREASURE!

Treasures are hidden throughout the caverns. Follow the numbers and hints to collect them all.

PUNCH DOWN UNDER!

One treasure is easily found in the subway station, but the real riches are hidden below. Punch a hole (see left) and drop down.

Subway Serpents are fast but predictable. To steal their hoards, dash in quickly and straight back out.

SAFE JUMPING!

Whenever there's a long drop, use the Cola Bubble or Vanilla Umbrella to slow your descent.

TAKE COVER!

Protect yourself from the falling rocks by using the Vanilla Umbrella. Then walk slowly through this area.

SLINK BY THE SNAKE

To get the treasure, make a bridge across the gap then move to the middle and stop. Let the serpent pass to the right then grab the treasure!

A DIAMOND IN THE SKY

Place the trampoline on the round depression then push Up on the controller to reach the diamond. Next, punch a hole far over to the left.

YECI ANOTHER SNAKE!

Duck straight in. It's safe to stand beneath the snake's highest jumping point. Then quickly snatch the treasure.

EXPERIMENT EXPERIMENT EXPERIMENT

① UNGUARDED TREASURE

Some treasures are easy to get. Here you'll find the riches three ledges up, and without snakes! Reach the goods with the ladder or trampoline.

The trampoline is the faster way up, but you have more scarce jellybeans. Use the ladder to conserve the tangerine jelly beans.

② UPS AND DOWNS

First climb to the upper ledge on the ladder, then use the umbrella and jump far to the left.

③ BUBBLING WITH ENTHUSIASM!

Once you're safe inside the cola bubble, take it easy. The slower you bob along the better off you'll be. Stay near the middle of the screen to avoid spikes that can burst your bubble. When you see a treasure move toward it carefully. Some treasures are protected by rock spikes. If you go for the gold here, keep the bubble as steady as possible, or else...

To leave the water, return to the ledge and push to the left. The bubble will float up and out. Whistle to transform Blob.

④ UP, UP AND AWAY!

Position the trampoline just to the left of the round depression which is almost directly below the lip of the upper ledge. For precise placement, use the Blowtorch.

Place the trampoline exactly as seen here.

To retrieve Blob, whistle then toss a Honey Jellybean over the side.

⑤ STOP! DEAD END!

This route leads to nowhere you want to be. Instead, head to the left and numbers 10 and 11.

⑥ TRICKY MOVES

Jump down to the water's edge using the umbrella. Then, when going back up, make a bridge and dodge the serpent.

A running jump will carry you from the ledge down to the water's edge.

Build the bridge across the gap and stop at the midpoint to evade the serpent.

Move slowly to the right and stick to the middle area of the two underwater screens.

Unless you have the rock steady hands of a surgeon, stay clear of this perilous treasure.

To get out of this area, use the ladder then build a bridge as you did in #11.

⑦ DROP IN AND DROP BY

Use a Punch hole directly above the treasure. As you step into the hole, call Blob. You'll fall right past the surprised serpent.

Timing is very important! If you whistle too late the serpent will get you.

⑧ BACK TO THE STREET

Place the Apple Jack below the round manhole cover. The manhole will fly off. With the trampoline you can jump back up to the street. Make sure you grab the jellybeans which are off to the left.

GET YOUR VITAMINS HERE!

Once you've got the treasure, visit the drugstore. Don't leave Earth without your vitamins.

EXPERIMENT EXPERIMENT EXPERIMENT THEN ON TO BLOBOLONIA...

Earth—127 Light Years Away

The rocket transports the boy from Earth to Blobolonia in a matter of seconds—a voyage that would take 10 billion years on roller skates. Here, both boy and Blob must adapt to the bizarre alien conditions as they seek out the Emperor. Some new techniques become very important.

The best way to avoid the rain of cherry bombs is to throw the coconut with a running start. Throw it hard and the cherries will explode harmlessly.

THE PEEL OF POPCORN

This popcorn is too salty for a growing boy. Avoid it by using the coconut toss.

Place the trampoline just to the left of the candy cane. Once you're up, turn-off the power switch.

CANDY FACTORY CONUNDRUM

A conundrum is a puzzle, and this area can be a puzzle to solve. Try turning off the machine, or use your trusty coconut outside the factory.

PEPPERMINT TREATS

Hidden from greedy eyes are special Peppermint Treats. Find five and you'll be treated to an extra life.

DON'T FEED THE MOLARS!

These huge munching teeth are enough to spoil your appetite. Luckily, you can dodge them without too much problem. Take it easy, though. Move past one molar at a time.

Use Punch holes in the depressions.

Be patient! Move one tooth at a time.

TWO WAYS TO BEAT THE KISSES

These chocolate kisses can attack the unwary—and we aren't just talking about cavities. Use your Vitablaster to zap the kisses, or Punch a hole through in the previous screen and then turn off the machine that's hidden below.

The Orange Vitablaster will do the job here.

Turn off this chocolatey mess.

THE EMPEROR OF BLOBOLONIA

Now the boy and his Blob are well on their way. But ahead lies the Emperor, and he's in a good mood...

Brought there to combat the evil wizard Blackborn, his only chance for returning to the real world is to rescue a captive Princess. In Astyanax, a new action game from Jaleco, follow his travels as he sets out to fight his way through armies of killer creatures.

STAGE 1-1

A The Living Dead are among Blackborn's followers. Cut short the careers of these bags of bones with your axe, Bash.

Stand on the first step, so the skeleton can't come down after you, then wait on him.

B Creatures often attack at untimely moments. Their fire can throw you into the pits.

Use the Bolt Spell to destroy the plants or they might hit you while you're jumping.

C Flaming Polyp Plants can easily be defeated when encountered on an open floor. Kneel and cut them down with the axe.

Move in quickly and give the wicked hedge a trimming.

D When a Polyp is on a platform, you can inch close to it on the next ledge and hit it with your axe, preserving magic.

Get as close as you can, but be ready to dodge its projectiles!

E The two-headed mutant you encounter here is Caesar's "bouncer." Unwanted visitors, like Astyanax, will be forcibly evicted!

When he unrolls, rush in, kneel under his leg and hit him with the axe.

The "bouncer" is done for, now it's on to Caesar, the first boss!

HOW TO DEFEAT CAESAR OF REMLIA

Hit the creature in the head to damage it.	Jump over the head when it flies after you.	Cut loose with your remaining magic to take him out quickly.

STAGE 2-1

- A Bomber Blooms appear in the same locations every time you go through a stage. Memorize these locations.

Use the Blind Spell to keep the Blooms from growing.

- B The blobbish obscurity at the end of Redroad wants to cruise back and forth undisturbed. If hit, it will lash out with its tentacle.

Hit it while it's a blob and then back off quickly.

Hit and run, then jump over it when you're out of ruffling room.

- C Stage 2-2 scrolls upwards. You can use this to your advantage by attacking enemies from below.

Jump and swing to hit the Plasma Octopods from underneath.

- D Leathery wings keep the Bat Creature of Inazumi aloft. Stand on the platform and let him come to you.

Watch out for the little snakes he tosses at you.

HOW TO DEFEAT THE MEDUSA OF INAZUMI

Fortunately, the Medusa-like Bend can't turn you to stone. She attacks by throwing snakes at you.

Dodge the snakes, move in and duck down to strike Medusa in the jewel on her stomach.

Use your remaining magic to score a quick victory.

STAGE 3-1

STAGE 2-2

- A You can defeat the Flaming Polyp here using your axe if you're cautious.

If you're standing at the center of the platform, its fire can't knock you off.

- B If a plant is on a higher ledge, you must use magic to defeat it before jumping.

Use Blind to keep plants from sprouting.

- C No place is safe in the Minotaur's domain, where lightning falls like rain.

A powerful Minotaur is the ruler of Ryogoku. He attacks by calling lightning from the sky.

- D The dues in Rent are collected by a four-eyed Stone Colossus. His concrete skin is exceedingly durable.

The Stone Colossus will try to back you against a wall. Hit and run tactics work best against him.

DEFEATING THE STONE MASTER OF RENT

The leader of the forces in Ryogoku and Rent wears a "suit" of solid rock. Hit the head to reveal the creature inside.

When you've hit his head enough, his armor will fall apart and the mental mutant will fly about the room using mental powers.

Get in as many full PW meter hits as you can, or use Blast or Bolt if you have magic remaining.

BOSS →

STAGE 4-1

A Marshy is inhabited by some of the hardest defenders you've yet encountered—the vicious Fishmen. If you wait until your PW meter is full before striking, you can beat them with two strikes.

Spend about an axe length from where the Fishman leaps.

Use the directional arrow to stay on the platform when you're hit.

B In this stage, Bind will let you get past swarms of Fishman, Medusa Eyes and Flaming Polyps.

Use Bind right before you meet a group of attackers, then run past.

Try to fight when only a single Fishman attacks.

B Like all the other bothersome little bosses, this bony character is only there to delay Astyanax's advance.

Fortunately, this skeleton will succumb to repeated axe hits.

B If the Bomber Bloom grows on a platform that is level with the one you're standing on, it can sometimes be safe to hit them with your axe.

Never jump on a platform that has a Bloom or Polyp on it, even if there's room for you.

+ 4-2

STAGE 4-2

B When the Wraith who guards Grave fully materializes, jump. His star will fly up and you can avoid it. Then move in and hit him with a few full PW strokes before he disappears.

Although he looks frightening, he can be dealt with using normal weaponry.

DEFEAT THE EVIL TREE CREATURE OF GRAVE

At the end of Marshy and Grave you'll encounter an evil Tree Creature with the power to summon living vines. Hit the seeds before they sprout.

The tree spirit attacks by breathing lightning. Avoid this dangerous blast and hit him in the head with full PW swings if possible.

A few more chops and then it's on to the final road to Thelma, where Princess Rosebud is being held.

BOSS

STAGE 5-1 A ruined causeway guarded by a variety of creatures leads to the castle. Blackhorn's minions will put up a stiff fight to prevent you from entering the Castle Thelenea.

ASTYANAX™

A There's more than one way to fry a fish... but you need to find the most efficient way to fry the Fishmen to make it through this stage.

Out of the frying pan, into the fire.

This really is one of the toughest parts

B Deadly foliage and flying creature attacks make the going difficult. Use extra caution.

If you noticed that there's dangerous spots in the entire stage.

You're beginning to get the picture!

C An Eagle and a Lion have been warped by Blackhorn's magic.

Try to beat the Lion first and then go for the Eagle.

They will attack when they combine into one grotesque creature.

D Plasmic Octopods should be tackled from below.

Jump when their spear is fully materialized to dodge it.

Once past them, don't fall back down or the creatures will reappear.

STAGE 6 →

E A familiar Bat Creature awaits you at the gate to Thelenea. Only this time he's green and extra mean.

You've fought this ferocious one before! Fight your way into the castle!

THEN... → 5-2

You can do it Astyanax!!!

FINAL FANTASY™

THE SUMMER OF
FINAL FANTASY
IS ALMOST HERE!

It's going to be the summer of Final Fantasy—The Role Playing Game from Nintendo that sets a new standard for adventure! Final Fantasy is not just bigger and better than earlier RPGs, it launches you into a universe more absorbing than The Legend of Zelda and more challenging than The Adventure of Link. And it's a blast to play! There's always a new goal to challenge your party of four Light Warriors, which you choose and command. Made up of fighters, thieves, mages or other adventurers, the party must explore endless castles, cities, caves and towers while forests, deserts and oceans must be braved and crossed in spite of more than 200 types of enemies! In fact, Final Fantasy is so big that you'll have to travel by ship, canoe and blimp to cover it all. And it is so involving that it will include an 84 page book detailed with maps, strategies and secrets to set players well on their way. This is not a game that can be finished in a few hours, or even a few days, but no matter how long it takes, every minute is exciting. Final Fantasy has a lithium battery like Zelda and Link to save your game, just in case you want to stop for food or water sometime.

A VAST WORLD MUST BE CHALLENGED AND CONQUERED BY THE LIGHT WARRIORS ON THEIR QUEST

The party must visit all four corners of the world to complete their quest. Doing so will pit them against a staggering array of enemies and terrain. During an attack, you will see the enemy and the party against a background of the terrain in which they meet.

Thick forests cover much of the land.

More enemies hide here than in fields.

Hydras and pirates haunt the rivers.

Don't waste magic on them. Use weapons.

Garland has filled the dungeons with monsters.

Victory will win you gold and weapons.

Towns offer weapons, armor and magic.

Talk to the people for valuable clues.

The Fighter is strong, but just an amateur, still learning his art.

But if he proves himself worthy he will graduate to full knighthood.

BUILD A STRONG PARTY

Selection of a balanced party is critical, for you will require many skills to overcome the enemies. More than 50 variations are possible, but not all are good. Try the Fighter, Monk, and Black and White Mages.

WATCH THE ATTACK SCREEN

In Final Fantasy you will see the actions you command actually carried out by the characters. You will also see the results of those actions, both good and bad.

Both enemies and your party are shown.

Weapons and spells are seen in action.

Run out of Hit Points and a character dies.

Characters stoop when Hit is critically low.

Mission Incredible!

A Grim Future...

Due to the efforts of a huge South American drug syndicate, the U.S. may be losing the war on drugs. Viper, the special operations team called in to deal with this threat, has lost contact with its agents in South America. They have only a single agent left, but he's their top man, Mr. Kenny Smith. In Code Name: Viper, an exciting new game from Capcom, you control the action as Kenny Smith launches a one-man assault on the syndicate's heavily guarded complexes.

Destination: South America

Seven hideouts have been located and they are scattered throughout South America. A helicopter drops Agent Smith off at the entrance to each hideout. He's on his own from there on.

Commander Jones calls Kenny Smith into his office for an urgent mission briefing.

"Yes, Commander Jones."

"Invalidate the drug lords' hideouts, rescue the hostages and then blow up the bases."

Mr. Kenny Smith—
Agent of Viper

Kenny Smith isn't called Viper's top agent for nothing. He's a sharpshooter with nerves of steel.

Commander Jones—
Director of Viper

Founder of Viper and brilliant strategist, he expects nothing short of perfection from his agents.

First Stage—Brazilian Jungle

Mission One

Incan ruins and a huge waterfall combine to give the first base the features of a natural fortress.

Mr. Smith's Arsenal

Kenny starts out with his trusty .45 caliber handgun. He'll discover additional ammunition stashed in the base. Some rooms also contain hidden machine guns. These weapons only have a limited amount of ammo, and if Kenny runs out, he'll have to find more or use his .45

Look out for snipers in the ruins. Try and shoot them as soon as they appear.

Locate the Captured Commando!

When Kenny locates the captive Viper agent in each base, he will get the bomb he needs to blow up the place.

In the later stages, Kenny travels all over South America to defeat the drug lords, from the jungles of Brazil to the mountains of Chile. Abandoned warehouses and ancient Incan ruins must be cleared of narco-terrorists. With grim determination, Kenny sets out to finish off the syndicate!

Stage One Mission Accomplished

At the end of the stage, toss the bomb into the door, destroying the base.

The rescued commando will also give Kenny a copy of the drug traffickers' master plan. However, it is incomplete and can only be pieced together after many stages have been finished.

Can Kenny demolish the drug syndicate and solve the mystery behind their schemes? Stay tuned for additional intelligence!

The second ramp keeps would-be heroes pinned down by a shower of bombs. Three bombs are lobbed one right after the other as you approach.

Run hard as soon as the third bomb explodes.

STAGE 1

The Outpost

On the perimeter of alien territory is an outpost base with towers, gun emplacements, trenches and an army of rabid alien soldiers with the single mission of stopping you! Quickness and a steady stream of bullets are the key to survival.

KNOW THY ENEMY

The alien wreches hide a glaring weakness. They always attack from the same place. Knowing where they will appear allows you to be ready.

START <

SOME ALIENS NEVER QUIT!

Hordes from the deepest, darkest reaches of the galaxy once challenged a couple of extremely tough humans who kicked their alien tails into the void. But like obnoxious relatives, the aliens have invited themselves back. Whether you play alone or with a partner, the non-stop action and super graphics can't be beat.

QUICKNESS IS THE KEY

With so many enemies constantly streaming out to get you, your best weapon is fast reflexes. Use every technique—jumping up, lying down and shooting at angles. Also find the best places to stand and fight.

COLLECT POWER CAPSULES

Luckily, you have a little help against the alien army. Winged capsules containing power up options for your rifle fly overhead. Shoot them down to boost your fire power.

RAPID FIRE

Unless you have a controller with turbo, or fearless fingers, you'll need this.

FIRE

Great balls of fire! This capsule converts your weapon into a flame throwing message.

LASER

Both high powered and continuous shooting make the Laser an awesome weapon.

SPREADER

Your shots will fan out so you can take out lots of enemies all at once.

ROW

A new and improved Rapid Fire allows you to reach the end stages.

BARRIER

This protective capsule will keep you on your feet when the house is coming down.

The aliens keep coming

THE BOSS

BLAST THE CHOPPER

At the end of the Outpost stage you will be attacked by a helicopter gunship. Shoot the gunports first while avoiding unfriendly fire and emerging soldiers. Try standing to the right.

Pass the bombs and charge ahead.

Destroy all four gunports.

Concentrate your fire on the target.

Included below are pictures of the stages you'll encounter as you move deeper into alien held territory. Each stage has its own unique terrain and enemy characters, and each holds secrets that must be unlocked if you are to reach the next stage. Super C will challenge even the top Power Players so don't get frustrated if it takes awhile.

STAGE 3

The Jungle

Beyond the base stretches a vast swampy jungle. Here the enemy hides up in the trees and down in the tall grass. Pools lie in your path, which may prove useful if you hold your breath.

When the action gets too hot, duck underwater to cool off. While you're submerged you'll be safe.

STAGE 5

The Cliff

Aliens with jet-packs and rolling stones will try to keep a good man down, if they can. Precision jumping and shooting will help you up this treacherous slope.

Dexterity and jumping skills will get you up the cliff.

STAGE 6

Entry To HQ

The further you go the tougher it gets. To make it this far you have to have stamina or a lot of luck.

At the end of Stage 6 waits a real challenge.

STAGE 2

The First Base

The view changes to a vertical scroll. Use what cover you can and blow away the big guns, which are powerful. Watch out for soldiers with hand weapons.

Develop a new strategy to fight on a vertical screen.

STAGE 4

The Inner Base

Both horizontal and vertical challenges await you within the Inner Base. Here you must fight your way up an elevator swarming with winged aliens. Extra lives will be a great help.

Timing your jump is super critical in the dangerous elevator area.

STAGES 7&8

Headquarters

Aliens straight out of the movies pursue your every step as you search for your leader. When you find it, you'll probably wish you hadn't.

DRAGON WARRIOR™

TEXT ADVENTURE

Have you ever wondered how decisions are made in a Role Playing Game such as Dragon Warrior? In this text adventure you'll see how your choices lead to particular results. It's the same sort of process that's at work in the computer chips of your NES—what we call "if, then" statements. This is also a good way to learn about the strategy of Dragon Warrior and have some fun.

Rules of The Game

As a warrior about to set out on a quest you have 10 Hit Points (HP), 0 Magic Points (MP) and 120 Gold. Read what happens in each frame, then either choose from the list of options or go to the frame number indicated if there is only one option. When attacked by monsters your HP will be reduced, and if it reaches 0, the game is over. Your success depends on how well you make decisions and how well you remember wrong turns and dead ends. There are many dangers, and the choice that works once may not work in a different situation.

START

As the descendant of Erdrick, a great warrior of old, you are about to set out on the first leg of a quest to defeat the Dragonlord who has taken over the Kingdom of Alefgard. You begin in Taritegal Castle and, as you stand at the gate, you must decide which direction to take.

- A. East, go to #1
- B. South, go to #2
- C. West, go to #3
- D. North, go to #4

BASES LOADED II™

Realistic graphics and great game play; these features have made the original Bases Loaded the choice for many baseball and NES fans looking for a way to survive the off-season winter doldrums. Well, for all you armchair managers, Jaleco serves up the perfect pitch for play during this year's season with Bases Loaded II. It's loaded with innovative baseball features!

IT'S A HIT!

Bases Loaded II is really a whole new ball game. The new viewpoint of the diamond only takes a short time to get used to, and on the field you can move your fielders more quickly and freely to snag the ball and make the play. Pitching control is awesome. You have the ability to put enough movement on the pitch to throw not only hanging curve balls, but also wild pitches.

In addition to all of its new features, Bases Loaded II has the same rich graphics and simulated voices like the original.

Bummer. Another home run.

Call the bullpen when you need relief.

Bring in a pinch hitter.

REALISTIC STATISTICS!

To simulate the streaks and slumps real players go through, Bases Loaded II has a biorhythm feature which measures a player's variable capabilities. Each player also has more constant statistics that are laid out in detail in the instruction manual.

He'll probably hit a home run today!

This guy should warm the bench.

RESCUE: THE EMBASSY MISSION™

A foreign Embassy has been seized by an unknown group of enemies. Prisoners have been taken. Threats have been made. A specially trained task force is on its way to take the Embassy back and you are the leader of the team. Dark and detailed graphics highlight this new thriller from Kemco/Seika.

UNDER THE CLOAK OF NIGHT, THE MISSION BEGINS...

The team makes its way swiftly onto the scene. They must get to the Embassy roof, break in through the windows and free the prisoners. This may be a quick mission for some players, but difficulty levels help insure that it will be a challenge.

MAKE YOUR WAY TO THE EMBASSY

Avoid being discovered by enemy spotlights

Hide in a doorway until the coast is clear

Dive out of enemy sight

Your next task is to rappel down the sides of the Embassy and crash through the windows. One member of your team waits in a nearby building and keeps guard while the others make their way down.

RAPPEL AND ENTER!

While moving down the side of the building, make sure that you continue to get more rope. When you reach the window, swing out.

Make your way down.

HOW DO I GET THE KEY TO THE UPPER LEVELS OF NOCKMAAR CASTLE?

There is a small house to the west of the Castle in Tir Asleen. You'll find the key to the doors of Nockmaar Castle there, but only after you have accomplished certain tasks. First talk to the woman of the mountain path northwest of Tir Asleen Castle. She'll allow you to enter this Castle.

Find Airk in Tir Asleen Castle and defeat the menace in the next room. After you explore for a while and get out of some tight situations, you'll meet up with the Brownies. Go visit them outside of the caves east of Tir Asleen and walk through the caves to Nockmaar Castle.

In the first floor of Nockmaar Castle, you'll find the warrior, Abang. He'll give you some valuable information. Finally, return to Tir Asleen and you'll find that the house to the west is no longer locked. The woman of the mountain lives there and she'll give you the key to Nockmaar Castle.

Talk to this woman in order to enter Tir Asleen Castle.

Talk to the Brownies and journey to Nockmaar.

DISNEY'S DUCK TALES WHERE IS THE SKELETON KEY TO THE AFRICAN MINES?

When you first try to get into the African Mines, Louie will tell you that the Skeleton Key to the Mines is in Transylvania and you'll be sent directly to the haunted house. As soon as you enter this area, work to the right and take the first Warp Mirror that you see to a room with a large chest. Inside this chest is the Skeleton Key. If you select Transylvania without first going to the African Mines, this Mirror will not work as a Warp.

When you get to Transylvania from the African Mines, warp into the first Mirror.

Louie directs you to Transylvania whenever you go to the African Mines and you don't have the Skeleton Key. This way, you can enter and exit Transylvania without actually selecting Transylvania and collect the two hidden 1-Ups in the haunted house repeatedly to build a large reserve of Ducks. When you enter Transylvania via the African Mines, collect the two Collect a 1-Up by whacking this rock into the chest and use the Warp Mirror.

Collect this 1-Up in the area to the right of the Mine Cars.

1-Ups, warp into the room with the Skeleton Key and warp back to Duckburg without collecting the Key. Repeat this maneuver until you have the maximum of nine Ducks in reserve and then get the Key as you leave. This way, you'll be ready for the challenges ahead!

Negotiate the Mine Cars.

Pass up the Key and repeat this maneuver.

RIVER CITY RANSOM

HOW DO I GET INTO RIVER CITY HIGH SCHOOL?

The big guy, Ivan, is the guard at the gates of River City High and the only way that you can gain access to the school is to beat him. Like a lot of the characters in this game, Ivan will only show up if you defeat the gang leaders that are under his command. Thor is Ivan's right hand man and you'll have to meet up with him in the Factory before you get to River City High. Thor also has assistants, and those enemies must be done away with before he shows up. As Turk says, "To see Thor, you've got to toast all three Zombies." You should also take on Mojo and Benny & Clyde on the way. The first of the Zombies is Moose, the leader of the Generic Dudes in Stickville. You'll get to him after you wipe out the rest of the gang at the construction site. The second Zombie is Rocko in the W.S.L. Warehouse. Make sure that you take out all of the creeps on both sides of the Warehouse and Rocko will come out of the door on the left side. You'll have to backtrack to get to the third Zombie, Blade. The entrance to Sherman Park, where Blade hangs out, is just to the right of Grotto Mall. After you meet and beat Blade, move on to the Factory, take on Thor and advance to the gates of River City High. Make sure that you buy plenty of food and special items to power-up before you burst into the High School. There are some mean characters waiting for you there. Good luck!

Beat Moose first.

Take on Rocko in the Warehouse

Blade is the toughest Zombie

gon, move to the left, climb down the ladder and drop three screens. Climb down the next ladder to the left, reach the top of the next screen and walk to the right across the white blocks until you get to a ladder. Climb down to the bottom of the ladder and work over to the left. In the next area there will be a ladder in the floor. Climb down this ladder, walk to the left and head down the next ladder. When you reach the bottom, press down on the fourth block from the right.

Follow this pattern in the lower left section.

PUNCH-OUT!!

FROM AGENT # 035 The End Is Near

The rumor is true! There is a code that will send you directly to the Dream Fight with Mike Tyson! We've waited to let you know so that you would have a chance to get to Iron Mike on your own. He is, by far, the best boxer around and the only way that you'll be able to knock him on the mat is to master fighting the other opponents first. You'll see what we mean by entering 007 373 5963 as your Pass Key.

Take on Kid Dynamite with a record of 0-2.

In the first half of the first round Mike throws nothing but knock down punches. If he connects, Little Mac will get a one-way ticket to the canvas. After the first 90 seconds, Mike throws more manageable blows. Dodge his punches and counter when you can. If you can get his energy to next to nothing at the end of the first or second round, you might be able to score a TKO in the next round.

Practice on the other opponents before you take on Iron Mike.

In a previous issue, we've mentioned the code to Another World Circuit which allows you to make your way up to the Dream Fight while taking on the other boxers in a different order than the traditional World Circuit. To reach this mixed up line-up of challengers, enter 135 792 468 and leave the last digit at 0 but don't press the A Button yet. Instead, press and hold the Select Button and press A and B at the same time. You'll be sent immediately to the beginning of this Circuit for a bout with King Hippo.

Enter the first nine numbers, hold Select, press A and B and go to Another World Circuit.

Make your way to Mike by fighting the opponents in a different order than before.

There's a different code that is entered the same way as the Another World Circuit code. This one lets you see the end credits without ever playing the game. Enter 106 113 012, leave the last digit at 0, hold Select and press A and B. There you have it! It's the end of the game!

See the end credits without even entering the ring.

BAD DUDES

■ FROM AGENT # 107 Enlist Assistance

Your chances to save the President from his captors will greatly improve with 63 fighters in reserve at the beginning of the game. At the title screen on Controller II, press B, A, Down, Up, Down and Up. Then press Start on Controller I. Your mission will begin with the odds heavily in your favor!

Enter the code listed above when the title screen appears for some powerful help.

■ FROM AGENT # 007 Slow Down Quick Man

While Flash Man's Time-Stopper has some incredible applications, we've never before seen it used as an offensive weapon. Enemies freeze while they are under the Time-Stopper's spell but they don't usually lose energy while frozen. Agent 007 has found though, that the fastest of Mega Man's foes actually incurs damage if he stops moving. With a full load of Time-Stopper power, Mega Man can freeze Quick Man and cut his energy in half!

COBRA

■ FROM AGENT # 143 Fast Points

Grab a quick 1,000 points at the beginning of each stage as the Cobra Triangle drops into the playing area. Just hold down the A Button for a burst of shots and a bonus!

For a short time after this apparition occurs, you'll be able to use Magic without using up your supply!

Defeat three Worms in the Desert with one wave and an unseen being will walk by and temporarily give you a source of Magic.

DOUBLE DRAGON

FROM AGENT # 808 Early Stage Continue

Our Agents lurking on the tough side of town have uncovered a code that will aid Billy and Jimmy Lee in the early stages of their trail to the Black Shadow Warriors. If the game ends in Stages Two or Three, you can resume at the beginning of that stage. When the "Game Over" message appears, quickly press Up, Right, Down, Left, A and B on Controller 1. In a few seconds the game will give you the option to Continue or Start Over. Choose to continue and change the number of players or the level of difficulty if you want. Then press Start. You'll begin again at the stage that you left off. Our Agents are now in search of continue codes for more advanced stages. They'll report their findings in a future issue.

Enter the code in stages Two or Three to continue at the beginning of the stage and add a player or change the difficulty!

Double Your Chances

If there isn't a second player helping you take on the Black Shadow Warriors, you can begin the game with seven players in reserve instead of the usual three. Select a two-player game where the blows from the players can hit each other (2P Play B) and clear the first screen of enemies. Then eliminate the other character by knocking his energy down to nothing. Every time the Player Two fighter loses a character in reserve, you'll gain one! You'll then be ready to take on the enemies on your own.

Select a two-player game.

Clear the area.

Knock out the other fighter.

Build up to seven players!

FROM AGENT # 603 Quick Continue

Help this crazy caveman in his journey through the prehistoric land. When the game is over, just press and hold the Up arrow on the Control Pad and press Start. Continue!

A "T" Balloon will appear. Collect the Balloon and the Cybernoid will transform into a human form with full weapons, Maces and a Shield for six screens.

Use all of your Bouncers and aim for the panel on the left side of the Lift.

1-Up

While the big Guns look dangerous, they are more helpful than harmful. Fire repeatedly at the left side of the Guns and 1-Up Balloons will inflate from their barrels! Grab the Balloons before they sink to the bottom of the screen and you'll gain a ship!

You'll need a special ticket in order to compete. Of course, the competition is optional, and there will be a lot of other things to see at the event.

At press time, plans were still being finalized for the Nintendo World Championships 1990. By the time you read this, however, most of the preparations will be well underway. But first we thought it would be interesting to give out some details on the "Triathlon" Game Pak that will be used in the NWC contests. This specially designed Game Pak will run for about seven minutes and contain a segment of three Nintendo games: Super Mario Bros., Rad Racer and Tetris. Competitors must collect 50 coins in Super Mario Bros. to advance to the Rad Racer segment, where

The Four Score Proclamation!

Now that the NES Four Score is here, you'll have two options for enjoying four player games. Like the Satellite, plug four of your favorite controllers into the Four Score adaptor, which is guaranteed to work with the Max, Advantage and regular controllers from Nintendo. Don't try to use Power Pads or Zapper Light Guns, though, as they won't work. The Four Score features a four player switch and turbo power for the A and B Buttons on all four controllers at the same time! A six foot long cord with a dual plug connects the Four Score to your Control Deck and gives you enough distance from the TV so that everyone will be able to see the action and get into the fun. Best of all, the price of the Four Score is down to Earth.

Get into the fast action of new four player games with the NES Four Score controller adaptor.

Celebrity Profiles

SARA GILBERT

As Darlene Conner on the hit ABC television show "Roseanne," Sara Gilbert gets to say things most of us would like to express but can't get away with. When it comes to Nintendo, however, she plays strictly by the rules.

Sara began playing Nintendo in 1988 after she received a Nintendo Entertainment System as a Christmas present from her mom. With her friends Gloria and Jackie, she quickly mastered Super Mario Bros. and Super Mario Bros. 2, and started her quest in The Legend of Zelda soon after. "Although I haven't had much time to play Zelda, I do have a tip for playing Super Mario Bros.: If you're near the end of the game you can easily save the Princess if you're big and just run through the dragon," she said.

Lately, Sara has "totally gotten into playing Game Boy." She often video-links on Tetris with her friends and fellow television stars Jason Hervey and Danica McKellar of the ABC series "The Wonder Years" and Jeremy Miller of ABC's "Growing Pains." Although she wouldn't reveal her best score, Sara did admit that Game Boy was number one on her Christmas list. From the age of six, about the same time that sister Melissa (Laura on NBC's "Little House on the Prairie") earned a star on the Hollywood Walk of Fame, Sara knew that she wanted to be an actress. Not that her choice of an acting career was a complete surprise, however. After all, show business runs in the family, from her grandfather, creator and writer of "The Honeymooners," on down to Melissa and brother Jonathan, who also starred on "Little House on the Prairie."

Sara's first job was a TV commercial for Kool-Aid. After that came several TV movies, including "The Apple Dumpling Gang," "Celebrity Jane" and an ABC Weekend Special, "Runaway Ralph."

But by far her favorite role is portraying the youngest daughter on "Roseanne." Sara recalls that the funniest moment on the show occurred when she knocked Roseanne Barr down as both were racing to answer the phone in one particular scene. "It didn't really seem funny at the time but we've laughed about it a lot since then."

Game Review: Sara Gilbert

A Boy and His Blob

"Totally awesome!" replied Sara when asked how she liked A Boy and His Blob. "The Blob is cool. It's a great idea for a game," she added. Sara described the object of the game for A Boy and His Blob: "You feed the Blob different tasting jellybeans. The jellybeans turn the Blob into things which will help you get to your destination: the planet Blobolonia." Sara said she was "totally stoked" about the opportunity to play this new game.

On her personal power meter rating on a scale of 1 to 5, Sara gave the game a 2 1/2 on graphics and sound, 1 1/2 on play control ("Not responsive enough," she explained). "The Blob goes four steps when you want him to take just one!", a 4 for the overall challenge of the game and a 5 on the game's theme ("Incredible!"). As for what to watch for when playing A Boy and His Blob, Sara cautioned: "Look out for the centipede. And be sure to use the umbrella as a parachute and as protection against falling rocks."

A LOOK INTO THE FUTURE OF NES GAME PAKS!!

The colorful, detailed and dynamic cinema scenes of the original Ninja Gaiden set a standard for action game narration that has since been widely emulated. These cinema scenes made Ninja Gaiden play almost like a movie. Well, in the tradition of Hollywood's love for sequels, Tecmo announces Ninja Gaiden II: The Dark Sword of Chaos. But Ninja Gaiden II is more than just a sequel.

In the opening scene of Ninja Gaiden II, we are introduced to Ashtar, a shadowy figure plotting world domination. It has been a year since Ryu defeated Jaquio, and this being has new plans for the Ninjas of the Dragon Sword. Of course, Ryu is initially oblivious to Ashtar's schemes—his only worry is finding his missing friend Irene Lew. Only after several levels of combat will Ryu discover who Ashtar is and what he plots...

The superb graphics of the cinema scenes which tell the tale are even better than those in the original. But not to be overlooked is Ninja Gaiden II's great game play. Ryu's mission will take him through some treacherous and challenging terrain, including an almost pitch black night scene that is only sporadically illuminated by flashes of lightning. This is one tough game! Although many film sequels don't live up to their original, this is one game sequel that surpasses the original. Four stars and two thumbs up for Ninja Gaiden II!

CRYSTALIS

Adventure through a post-holocaust world full of dangerous mutated creatures and lost technology in Crystalis, a future adventure from SNK. Encounter and speak with the people who are attempting to rebuild civilization, and discover the secret behind a century old tower in the sky.

The highlights of Crystalis include great play control (your character is very nimble and quick) and, like all good adventures, a wide variety of items to find and places to visit. A battery backed memory saves your progress and when you lose a life, you can continue with all the experience points you've acquired.

RESCUE RANGERS

Chip and Dale's neighbor, Mandy, has lost her kitten and the park is being invaded by mechanical bulldogs—this looks like a job for the Rescue Rangers!

Like Duck Tales, this is a game that players of all ages will enjoy because of its game play challenge, but younger players will especially like it because of their familiarity with the characters. Rescue Rangers also features an awesome two-player simultaneous mode where one player is Chip and the other is Dale.

GOSSIP

"Thunderbirds Are Go" for Nintendo! Gerry and Sylvia Anderson's super marionette characters of 1960's TV and film fairs are racing their way to the NES in a game under development by Mediasgenic. Fans unfamiliar with the show will still appreciate this action oriented shoot 'em up game's detailed graphics.

A Journey to Silius, a future offering for the NES from Sunsoft, is an action type game dealing with the quest of Jay, a young man of the future, for the truth behind the death of his father. Jay's battle-scarred apocalyptic world is portrayed in the colorful detail you've come to expect from Sun.

It looks like Vic Tokai will continue the NES adventures of freelance spy Duke Togo, alias Golgo 13 in a new episode, The Mafat Conspiracy. Compared to Top Secret Episode, the scenes in The Mafat Conspiracy where G-13 takes to the street have crisper and more colorful graphics; and the three dimensional sequences inside the buildings are easier to get through because of the addition of an on-screen compass. The Mafat Conspiracy's story concerns the efforts of a revolutionary group to disrupt American defense plans by kidnapping a top scientist and forcing him to build killer satellites. G-13 is hired by the C.I.A. to rescue the professor and smash Mafat's world endangering schemes.

GOLGO 13: THE MAFAT CONSPIRACY

The Corner

SOLSTICE

In order to save his beloved Princess Eleanor, Shadox the wizard must locate six pieces of a powerful staff in Solstice.

a new action/puzzle game from CSG Imagesoft. Since the pieces of the staff are hidden in a labyrinth of 300 baffling and deadly rooms, it's a challenging task indeed. During play, a single chamber of the maze is displayed on the screen in a three dimensional view. Shadox must use objects in the room to either find a way to the next room and/or retrieve a necessary item. Watching the demo screen will give you clues on some of the rooms, but then you're on your own.

You're sure to get a smile from the NES antics of everybody's favorite castaways from Gilligan's Island. Bandai has captured some of the feel and humor of the show in this game where you control the Skipper as he tries to get the other castaways ready for impending island disasters.

Get into the mining business in Boulder Dash, a new game from a new NES licensee, JVC. Your little hard hat wearing miner digs through the ground (a la Dig Dug) in search of diamond riches. Although the game is mainly an action style contest, you must use some forethought in deciding where to go.

GOSSIP GALORE

MANIAC MANSION

Maniac Mansion, the award-winning mystery adventure game created by Lucasfilm Games, is under translation for the NES from Jaleco. In Maniac Mansion, which has been described as a cross between "The Rocky Horror Picture Show" and "The Addams Family," you must rescue your cheerleader friend from the clutches of a demented scientist. You select three radical kids (each equipped with different abilities) to take with you to Dr. Fred's mansion to rescue her. To add to the depth of the game, there are 50 detailed rooms to explore and 450 objects to discover and use. Maniac Mansion also has mouse-like control reminiscent of Shadowgate.

BATTLE CHESS

Battle Chess from Data East is a NES translation of the hit P.C. chess game. It plays like real chess (and is a tough opponent), but breaks to animated battle scenes between the pieces each time one captures the other. Although the outcomes of these little duels are predetermined, they do make every match seem like an epic battle.

LITTLE LEAGUE BASEBALL

Little League Baseball from SNK has similar play control to Baseball Stars, but instead of big leaguers, the players here are the cream of the Little League crop. Some kids are sluggers, others are weaklings—each has a slightly different personality and appearance. Pick a team from the U.S. or one of several foreign countries and vie for the Little League World Championships.

CASTLEVANIA III

It looks like Simon's quest to rid Transylvania of evil was not concluded even with his banishing of Dracula's curse in Castlevania II. This one is in the advanced stages of development, but since it's sure to be a hit, you can bet Konami will get it out as soon as they can. We'll let you know more as soon as we find out additional details.

DUNGEON MAGIC

This future RPG from Taito will be the first NES title where all the action in the game unfolds in a first person three-dimensional perspective. Throughout the game, you see exactly what your character sees. This makes the game not only very interesting, but also really challenging—map making is a must! While the top half of the screen shows you what your character sees, the bottom is the sub-screen, so you can constantly monitor your progress and status.
